Are you the founder of a social enterprise?
Take part in the CRÉENSo Prize 2020-2021!
National Prize for the Creator of a Social Enterprise

If you started your business less than three years ago, after July 1, 2017:

Does the idea of doing things "differently" resonate with you?
Do your products or services meet a social need?
Are you prepared to hire people who are furthest away from the job market?
Have you put a system of participatory governance in place?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you should enter the CRÉENSo Prize 2020-2021!

The CRÉENSo PRIZE is a way of publicising and giving a boost to the pioneering and financially sustainable projects of people who work in social enterprises. It is judged by a jury of prominent individuals.

The finalists are guaranteed skills sponsorship by an IÉSEG School of Management student, as part of the "CRÉENSo" module taught in the fourth year at IÉSEG.

The four best entries are also in with a chance of winning a €10,000 endowment for first place, €7,000 for second, €5,000 for third and €3,000 for the Jury's Favourite.

The CRÉENSo PRIZE, is:

- A national prize organised by IÉSEG and the Ceetrus Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship
- A project that brings together the whole IÉSEG community: students, teachers and alumni
- 15 winners were rewarded with a year of support in 2019/2020
- There is a total allocation of €25 000 every year to be shared by the four best entries

- And so much more as well which you can find out about on www.creenso.fr Et bien d'autres choses encore, à découvrir sur www.creenso.fr
