

Major in your mission

The revolutionary 3-year Bachelor of Science in Social Entrepreneurship from Lynn University is built for students to major in their mission, gain experience as interns with leading organizations in their field, and develop a skill set necessary to create impactful, successful careers.

watson.is/watson-institute-lynn-university

Master Course Teachers

Some of the world's foremost leaders, entrepreneurs, and practitioners deliver Master Courses, 30 highly interactive workshops, and 1-on-1 mentorship sessions each year, with the Watson Scholars.

watson.is/master-course-teachers/

Mentorship

Every student is paired with mentors that align with their mission, challenge assumptions, contribute valuable perspective, and expand their network.

watson.is/mentors/

Community

Students join a diverse cohort with members from every corner of the globe, a variety of experiences, and a common goal to impact the world.

watson.is/alumni/

Early action deadline

Nov. 15

Regular decision deadline

March 1

To apply, visit:

watson.is/watson-institute-lynn-university-application/

For more information, contact:

Javier Lopez-Mochon

Director of Admission

javi@watson.is