Following the termination of said subscription, the data collected upon the subscription as well as the content published by the User on the Platform shall be deleted after it is no longer necessary to the customer.

The Data Controller may request permission from the User to retain data that may be of use to the Data Controller.

ARTICLE 4. DATA TRANSFERS

The Users' data are stored in the European Economic Area (EEA) by the Data Controller, [its subsidiaries] and its trusted service providers. However, depending on the processing, the Users' data may also be transferred in a country outside the EEA, to our trusted service providers [and/or subsidiaries].

When transferring data outside the EEA, the Data Controller ensures that the data are transferred in a secured manner and with respect to the Data Protection Law. When the country where the data are transferred does not have a protection comparable to that of the EU, the Data Controller uses "appropriate or suitable safeguards".

When the service providers to whom personal data are transferred, are located in the United States, these transfers are governed by the standard data protection clauses adopted by the Commission.

Users can access such safeguards by contacting the DPO at the following address compliance@micahglobal.org

ARTICLE 5. COMMITMENT OF THE DATA CONTROLLER

The Data Controller commits to process User's personal data in compliance the Data Protection Law and undertake to, notably, respect the following principles:

- Process User's personal data lawfully, fairly, and in a transparent manner;
- Only collect and process the Users' data for the strict purpose as described under article 2 of the present privacy policy;
- Ensure that the personal data processed are adequate, relevant and limited to what is reasonable in relation to the purposes for which they are processed;
- Do the best efforts to ensure that the personal data processed is accurate and, if necessary, kept up to date and take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal data that is inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which it is processed, is erased or rectified without delay;
- Keep personal User's data for no longer than is reasonable for the purposes for which it is processed;
- Put in place all necessary technical and organizational appropriate measures in order to ensure the security, confidentiality, integrity, availability and the resilience of the process systems and services;

- Limit the access to the Users' data to the persons duly authorized to this effect;
- Guarantee to the Users their rights under the Data Protection Law in relation to the processing of their data and make the best efforts to satisfy any request, where this is possible.

ARTICLE 6. EXERCISE OF THE USERS' RIGHTS

The User is duly informed that it disposes at any time, depending on the legal basis of the processing, a right to access, to rectification, to erasure, to restriction of processing, to data portability, and to object.

When processing is based on User's consent, the right to withdraw consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of the processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

The User can exercise its rights by sending an email to the following address compliance@micahlobal.org provided that the User justifies his/her identity.

ARTICLE 7. COOKIES

The Data Controller informs the User that Hivebrite, as well as its subcontractors, uses a tracking technology on its terminal such as cookies whenever the User navigates on the Platform subject to the conditions described in the Data Controller Cookie Policy: <https://hivebrite.com/privacy-policy>

ARTICLE 8. RECIPIENT AND PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO ACCESS THE USERS' DATA

Only authorized persons working for the Data Controller [and, in some cases, its subsidiaries], can access your personal data. The Data Controller makes its best effort to ensure that these groups of people remain as small as possible and maintain the confidentiality and security of User's personal data.

The Data Controller also uses trusted service providers to carry out a set of operations on his behalf for hosting [and payment services]. The Data Controller can also use service providers in the tech industry, editors of specific tools integrated in the Platform for technical purposes.

The Data Controller only provides service providers with the information they need to perform the service and ask them not to use your personal data for any other purpose. The Data Controller does his best to ensure that all these trusted service providers only process the personal data on our documented instructions and provide sufficient guarantees, in particular in terms of confidentiality, expert knowledge, reliability and resources, to implement technical and organizational measures which will meet the requirements of the applicable legislation, including for the security of processing.

The Data Controller may be required to disclose or share your personal data to comply with a legal obligation, or to enforce or apply our terms of use/sale or any other conditions you have accepted; or to protect the rights, safety or property of [The Micah Network], its customers or employees.
