- Improving our product and service information and carrying out targeted marketing campaigns.

We find it important to approach you with information that is relevant to you. To make this possible, we combine and analyse the personal data available with us. On that basis we determine which information and channels are relevant and which moments are most suitable for providing information or establishing contact. In marketing campaigns we do not process any special personal data and also no confidential data. If we would like to create a personal, individual customer profile, we will ask for your prior permission. If you would like to withdraw this consent later, this is always possible.

We analyse the following data:

- Interaction data: Personal data obtained from contact between ARTTIC and you. For example about your use of our website or supported applications. This also applies to offline interactions, such as how often and when there is contact between ARTTIC and you.
- Behavioural data: Personal data that ARTTIC processes about your behaviour, such as your preferences, opinions, wishes and needs. We can derive this data from your surfing behaviour on our website, reading our newsletters or because you have requested information. But also through contact, incoming telephone calls and e-mail contact with our employees. Information obtained through tracking cookies, we collect and use only with your permission, which you can always withdraw. See our cookie statement
- Performing and analysing research into client satisfaction. Sometimes we ask clients to cooperate in a client satisfaction survey. This is done through an online questionnaire. Participation in this is voluntary. Prior to each client satisfaction survey you will receive further information about the working method and the way we deal with the information obtained.
- Improving and securing our website www.iprocurenet.Hivebrite.com
- Creating user statistics. The user statistics of the website enable us to get a picture of the number of visitors, the duration of the visit, which parts of the website are being viewed and the click-behaviour. It concerns generic reports, without information about individuals. We use the information obtained to improve the website.

5 Security level

We protect personal data, taking into account the state of the art, using appropriate technical and administrative security measures to minimize the risk of loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure and modification. You can think of security software such as a virus scanner and firewalls, a secure internet connection, encryption of data and physical and administrative access controls to data and servers.

6 Security level

We do not store your personal data for longer than is strictly necessary for the execution of the purposes. If legal regulations apply to the storage, the personal data will not be kept longer than prescribed by law.

7 Security level

We process personal data on the basis of one of the following legal grounds:

- Obtained permission
- On the basis of an agreement or in the run up to the conclusion of an agreement
- Legal obligation
- In connection with a legitimate interest.

A controller may only process personal data if this can be based on one of the limitative enumerated legal grounds in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The four legal grounds on which ARTTIC relies are:

- Permission: If we have requested your permission to process your personal data and you have given this permission, then you also have the right to withdraw this consent.
- Agreement or in the run up to the conclusion of an agreement: If you give us an assignment to provide innovation or financing consultancy services, we process personal data if and insofar as this is necessary for the execution of the assignment.
- Legal obligation: We only provide personal data to supervisors of investigative authorities if this is legally required. We will take measures in such cases that are reasonably necessary to ensure that your personal data is protected as well as possible.
- Justified interest: We may also process personal data if we have a legitimate interest and do not therefore disproportionately infringe your privacy. For example, we use your contact information to invite you for seminars and events.

8 RECIPIENT AND PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO ACCESS THE USERS' DATA

Only authorized persons working for the Data Controller, can access your personal data. The Data Controller makes its best effort to ensure that these groups of people remain as small as possible and maintain the confidentiality and security of User's personal data.

The Data Controller also uses trusted service providers to carry out a set of operations on his behalf for hosting. The Data Controller can also use service providers in the tech industry, editors of specific tools integrated in the Platform for technical purposes.

The Data Controller only provides service providers with the information they need to perform the service and ask them not to use your personal data for any other purpose. The Data Controller does his best to ensure that all these trusted service providers only process the personal data on our documented instructions and provide sufficient guarantees, in particular in terms of confidentiality, expert knowledge, reliability and resources, to implement technical and organizational measures which will meet the requirements of the applicable legislation, including for the security of processing.

The Data Controller may be required to disclose or share your personal data to comply with a legal obligation, or to enforce or apply our terms of use/sale or any other conditions you have accepted; or to protect the rights, safety or property of ARTTIC, its customers, project partners or employees.
