

24 MARCH

TERMINAL13, COPENHAGEN

8.30-9.15

Registration and coffee

9.15-9.45

Welcome by EIT Urban Mobility, Copenhagen and Wolt

- Marc Rozendal, CEO of EIT Urban Mobility
- Jamie Saab, Global Head of Sustainability at Wolt
- Henrik Lundorff Kristensen, City of Copenhagen

9.45-10.30

The green transition in turbulent times: what is the role for urban innovators?

Panel discussion with City of Copenhagen, City of Malmö, City of Oslo, City of Riga and Wolt

10.30-11.00

Intervention by the European Commission

- Dr. Max Lemke, Head of Unit for Connected and Intelligent Mobility, Energy and Internet of Things at the European Commission's Directorate-General CONNECT

11.00-11.30

Coffee break

11.30-12.30

From pilots to scale: making sustainable urban mobility economically viable

Roundtable exploring challenges, trade-offs and success factors behind sustainable mobility business models, followed by an interactive Q&A

12.30-13.30

Networking lunch

13.30-16.00

Mobility site visits:

- OPTION 1 Cycling tour of Copenhagen's cycling infrastructure, street calming and urban climate adaptation projects
- OPTION 2 Boat tour of Copenhagen's urban waterfront renewal
- OPTION 3 Walking tour of Nordhavn's low-carbon, transit-oriented district

16.00-16.30

EIT Urban Mobility programme insights: what's new for 2026

Your guide to our 2026 programme and beyond: priorities, new opportunities, updates, and everything you need to get started

16.30-18.00

Partners' projects station

Connecting with peers and exploring posters highlighting selected partners' projects

18.00-21.00

Networking dinner

25 MARCH

TERMINAL13, COPENHAGEN

8.30-9.00

Welcome coffee

9.00-10.30

Understanding and addressing urban mobility challenges together PART 1

Focused parallel working group sessions on key mobility challenges

10.30-10.45

Coffee break

10.45-12.00

Understanding and addressing urban mobility challenges together PART 2

Focused parallel working group sessions on key mobility challenges

12.00-13.00

From EU policy to practice: enabling sustainable urban mobility in Europe

Roundtable focused on sustainable mobility and cycling, contributing to the EU discussion on SUMP, with an interactive Q&A

13.00-14.00

Networking lunch