

Youth Voice Ambassador

Future Voices Group

PAID
OPPORTUNITY

Youth Futures Foundation is looking for young people aged 18-24 to join our Future Voices Group! Read on to find out more...

Who are Youth Futures Foundation?

Youth Futures Foundation (YFF) is the What Works Centre for youth employment in England. This means that we gather evidence and insight to find out what helps young people get and keep good jobs, with a focus on marginalised young people. We share our findings with key decision-makers, like those in government, to drive change.

What is the Future Voices Group?

The Future Voices Group (FVG) is a group of 15 young people who support the work of YFF by advising us and sharing their voices employment issues that matter to them and their communities. Ambassadors work on projects with staff at YFF, as well as engaging with important people and organisations such as policymakers, employers and the media.

Important things to know!

Location: Online (with some in-person meetings)

Pay: £13.15/hour

Hours: Around 15 hours per month

Length: 1 year (January 2025 to December 2025)

As an Ambassador, you will:

- Be paid for sharing your voice
- Gain valuable experience
- Contribute to systemic change

You do NOT need experience to apply! We're interested in hearing from young people who have faced challenges or barriers when trying to get or keep a job - please refer to our vacancy page for more information on this.

Interested?

If you're interested in being part of the FVG, please take a look at the full application pack on our vacancy page here and complete this form by Sunday 17th November.

You can email youthinclusion@youthfuturesfoundation.org with any questions.

Apply here by Sunday 17th
November!

future
voices

YOUTH FUTURES FOUNDATION