

Musicians from Chapel Street Ensemble Interactive concerts in Cornwall special schools

Chapel Street Ensemble is a talented group of classical musicians based in West Cornwall. Formed in 2020, their unique combination of clarinet and stringed instruments allows for a wonderfully flexible and engaging programme.

Their performances are high-quality, dynamic, and inclusive, designed to be relaxed, informative, and inspiring for every listener.

Live Music Now brings interactive musical performances to specialist schools and settings throughout the country.

Our professional musicians are trained to work with children and young people with additional needs, and will contact teaching staff in advance to find out about the interests and communication needs of their pupils, to ensure that concerts are tailored to each setting
