

ODN Europe

Spain Event, Madrid, 25th October

Do you work in change, transformation, organisation development?

You might be a Transformation Director, a consultant, an HR Director, a team coach or a leader curious about how organisations change and develop.

Would you like to connect with others in Spain who are working with similar and different challenges and share ideas, practices and learning?

Join us on Friday October 25th from 09:30 at International Lab for a first Spanish ODN Europe event.

It will be a morning of content, connection and community building. The conversation will carry on over lunch from 14:00.
