

NEW MEMBER OF THE MONTH

Getting to know the newest Institutional Members of TUFH

الجامعة الليبية الدولية للعلوم الطبية
Libyan International Medical University

LIBYAN INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL UNIVERSITY

The Libyan International Medical University (LIMU), is an academic institute established in northern Africa, in Benghazi, Libya in 2007.

It has obtained a classification of initial approval by the National Center for Quality Assurance and Accreditation of higher education institutions.

LIMU is characterized by the diversity of its programs, as it offers eighteen programs in various disciplines, distributed over seven colleges, and run by various scientific experts.

مركز البحوث والاستشارات
Research and Consultation Center

The Research and Consultation Center oversees the University's research projects and provides them with possible support services. The Center also provides consulting services to institutions, companies, and individuals in various health fields in support of community services and development.

With "LIMU Research Portal", as LIMU affiliate, you can register your research proposal, It will be processed in a matter of days and we will lead you through the process.

VISION & MISSION

The University endeavors to graduate competent professionals equipped to satisfy community needs and promotes scientific research and programs of professional development. LIMU is committed to professional ethical values and principles.

VALUES

- Regionally occupy a leading position in the areas of learning, research, and training.
- LIMU seeks to achieve a sustainable university environment and create an ideal model that stimulates awareness and societal culture in the university environment.